Government of India
Ministry of Corporate Affairs

Subject: - Approved record of discussion of the meeting regarding Sub-Group of Chief Ministers on Skill Development held on 31st December, 2015.

Prime Minister's office may refer to their ID Note, No.360/31/c/29/2015/ES-2, dated 05.01.2016 on the subject cited above with respect to the record of discussions of the meeting held on 31.12.2015 of the Sub-Group of Chief Ministers on 'skill development'.

2. One of the discussion reads as follows:
"The Ministries of Corporate Affairs and Skill Development and Entrepreneurship may examine the option of allowing use of CSR funds in large industrial clusters for skill training related to the cluster activities".

3. The matter has been examined in the Ministry in the light of provision of section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013 and rules made thereunder read with General Circular issued on 18.05.2014.

4. In this connection it is stated that the activities to be undertaken as Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) are enlisted in Schedule VII of the Companies Act, 2013. 'Skill training' is already covered under item no. (ii) of Schedule VII of the Act.

5. Further, the Apprentices Act, 1961 read with the rules, mandates apprenticeship training to 'any area or any industry in any area' as notified by Central Government from time to time. Companies which are covered under the Apprentices Act shall undertake 'skill training' under the Apprentices Act 1961. These companies can also undertake 'skill training' from their CSR funds over and above the requirement under the Apprentices Act. The companies which do not fall under the Apprentices Act can undertake 'skill training' under the provisions of Corporate Social Responsibility.

6. General Circular dated 18.06.2014 issued by this Ministry already clarifies that expenses incurred by companies for the fulfillment of any Act/ Statute of regulations (such as Labour Laws, Land Acquisition Act etc.) would not count as CSR expenditure under the Companies Act. No further amendment / clarification is required to be issued by Ministry of Corporate Affairs in this regard.

7. This issues with the approval of Secretary, MCA.

Office Memorandum

New Delhi 11th March, 2020

SUBJECT: Clarification on utilization of Corporate Social Responsibility funds of industries/establishments on Apprenticeship Training under Apprentices Act,1961(amended 2014)

This has reference to activities to be undertaken as Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) enlisted in Schedule VII of the Companies Act, 2013 wherein "Skill Training" is already covered under item no. (ii) of Schedule VII of the Act.

As per circular from Ministry of Corporate Affairs dated 12/2 2016 (copy enclosed), Industries/establishments are permitted to utilize their Corporate Social Responsibility(CSR) funds for Apprenticeship Training which include expenditure on Basic Training and stipend payable to apprentices, under Apprentices Act,1961(amended 2014) as under

- I. Industries/establishments having employee strength above 30 - it is obligatory for them to engage apprentices minimum 2.5% and maximum 15%, hence any expenditure on Apprenticeship Training over and above of 2.5% i.e. minimum mandate as per Apprentices Act, can be booked under CSR funding.
- II. Industries/establishments having employee strength between 4-29 - it is not obligatory for them to engage apprentices, however, they are permitted to engage apprentices minimum 2.5% and maximum 15% , hence any expenditure on Apprenticeship Training can be booked under CSR funding.
- III. Industries/establishments having employee strength 3 or less – they are not permitted to engage apprentices hence no expenditure on Apprenticeship Training can be booked under CSR funding.
